Can I change nameserver and technical contact information?

Yes, once your domain is registered, you can use our web interface, Domain Manager to make changes to nameserver information, contact information, and more. By default, LexiConn nameserver and technical contact information are used upon initial registration.

https://support.lexiconn.com/kb/questions/91/