What is a nameserver?

A nameserver is a computer that holds the records of domain names. They are necessary in that they tell the Internet where your website can be found.

https://support.lexiconn.com/kb/questions/92/